AETF Development Committee - Terms of Reference

1. Introduction

The AETF Development Committee is responsible for guiding member countries in strategic planning, improving governance, and supporting event planning and overall growth. Its mission is to help national federations strengthen their structures, expand their membership, and enhance the quality of Taekwon-Do across Europe.

For AETF to thrive, it is essential to invest in the growth and sustainability of its member federations. This committee will focus on providing resources, expertise, and support to ensure that all national federations have the tools they need to succeed.

A full review of the current state of AETF member federations is necessary to identify areas where targeted development efforts can make the greatest impact.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

The Development Committee will:

- Assist member countries in creating strategic development plans to enhance their governance and operations.
 - Support national federations in improving their internal structures and policies.
 - Guide federations in event planning and hosting to expand the competition circuit.
 - Conduct an in-depth analysis of the current state of national federations to identify key areas for growth and improvement.
 - Develop mentorship programs, training workshops, and resource-sharing strategies to ensure continuous development.
