AETF Technical Committee - Terms of Reference

1. Introduction

The AETF Technical Committee is responsible for maintaining and improving the technical standards of ITF Taekwon-Do across Europe. This includes ensuring that instructors, athletes, and national federations follow consistent and high-level technical guidelines. The committee also works on innovating and modernising Taekwon-Do training methods while respecting its traditional values.

The evolution of Taekwon-Do requires a constant update of teaching methodologies and technical standards. The Technical Committee must lead this change, ensuring that European practitioners remain at the forefront of international Taekwon-Do.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

The Technical Committee will:

- Conduct instructor training courses to maintain high teaching standards.
 - Develop programs covering all disciplines of Taekwon-Do ITF.
 - Assist member countries in developing their national Taekwon-Do syllabus.
 - Organise an exclusive Masters Summit to exchange knowledge at the highest level.
 - Encourage innovation in Taekwon-Do techniques and teaching methods to align with modern training needs.

3. Implementation Plan

- Establish a structured instructor certification process.
- Provide resources and standardised teaching materials for national federations.
