

AETF European Ranking System V 1.1

Welcome to the official presentation of the AETF European Ranking System. This comprehensive framework has been designed to establish clarity, recognition, and growth for all stakeholders within the European Taekwon-Do community.

This presentation outlines the complete structure of the new ranking system that will be implemented starting from the AETF European Championships 2024, providing a transparent pathway for competitors and officials alike.

Purpose of the AETF Ranking System

Competitor Recognition

To establish an official Competitor Ranking System for Black Belts in sparring and patterns across Europe.

Umpire Recognition

To create an official Umpire Ranking System recognizing qualified AETF umpires.

Enhanced Competition

Provide better seeding at European Championships and allow all Black Belts to participate, not limited to national teams.

Official Launch

The system will officially launch starting from the AETF European Championships 2024.

Types of Ranking Events

AETF Open Ranking Tournament

Minimum 3 Open Tournaments annually

Points Multiplier: x5

AETF European Cup

Official European competition

Points Multiplier: x6

ITF World Cup

International competition

Points Multiplier: x7

AETF European Championships

1 official Championships per year

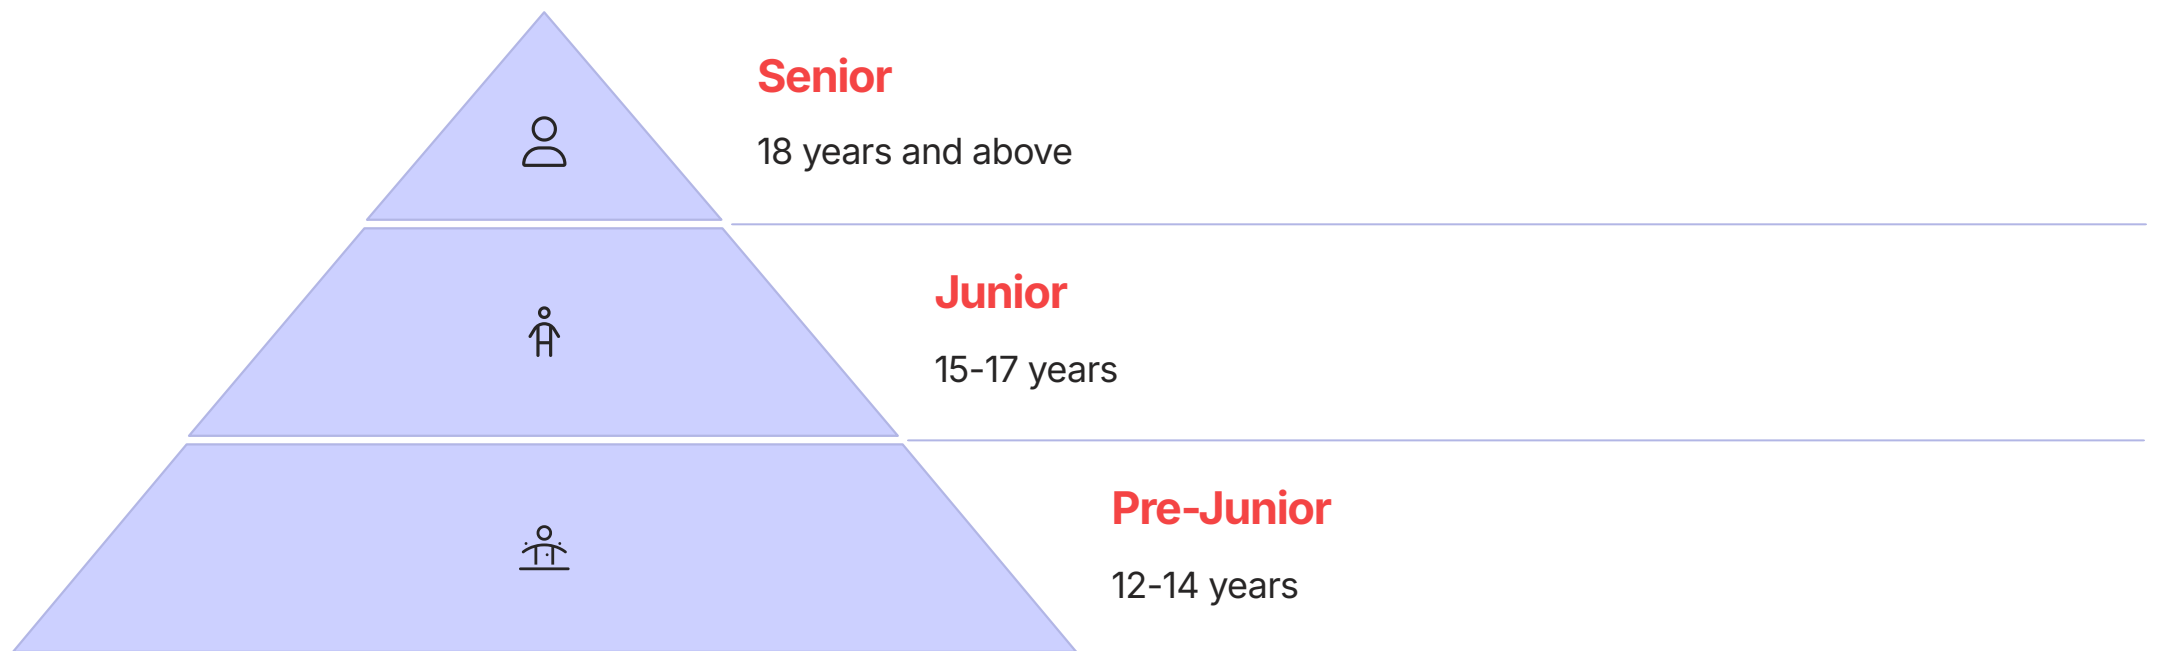

Points Multiplier: x8

ITF World Championships

Highest level of competition

Points Multiplier: x9

Ranking Age Classes

The AETF Ranking System is exclusively available for Black Belt competitors across these three age divisions. Each division is further separated by gender (male and female) to ensure fair competition throughout all events.

As competitors progress through age categories, their ranking points will be subject to the category change rules outlined later in this presentation.

Patterns Competition Details

Competition Format

Pattern matches: 1 vs 1 performance

Competitors must perform two designated patterns

1st Dan Range

Chon-Ji to Ge-Baek

2nd Dan Range

Competitor Points System

Result	Base Points
1st place	100 pts
2nd place	70 pts
3rd place	40 pts
4th–5th places	25 pts
6th–7th places	10 pts
8th–15th places	5 pts
Each round won	+10 pts
Participation (1 bout min.)	+5 pts

All points earned are multiplied according to the event type multiplier. For example, a 1st place finish at an AETF European Championship (×8 multiplier) would earn 800 base points, plus additional points for rounds won.

Final Remarks & Call to Action

COMPETE

Join ranking events as a competitor and build your position in the European rankings.

JUDGE

Participate as an umpire to gain recognition and advance your officiating career.

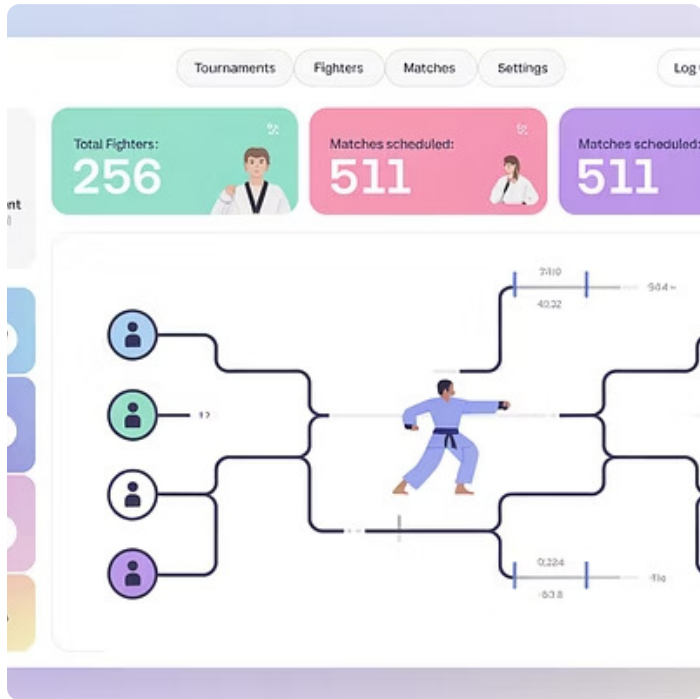

ORGANIZE

Host ranking events to showcase your federation and contribute to the growth of Taekwon-Do in Europe.

GROW

Be part of the future of European Taekwon-Do through this modern, fair, and structured approach to competition and recognition.

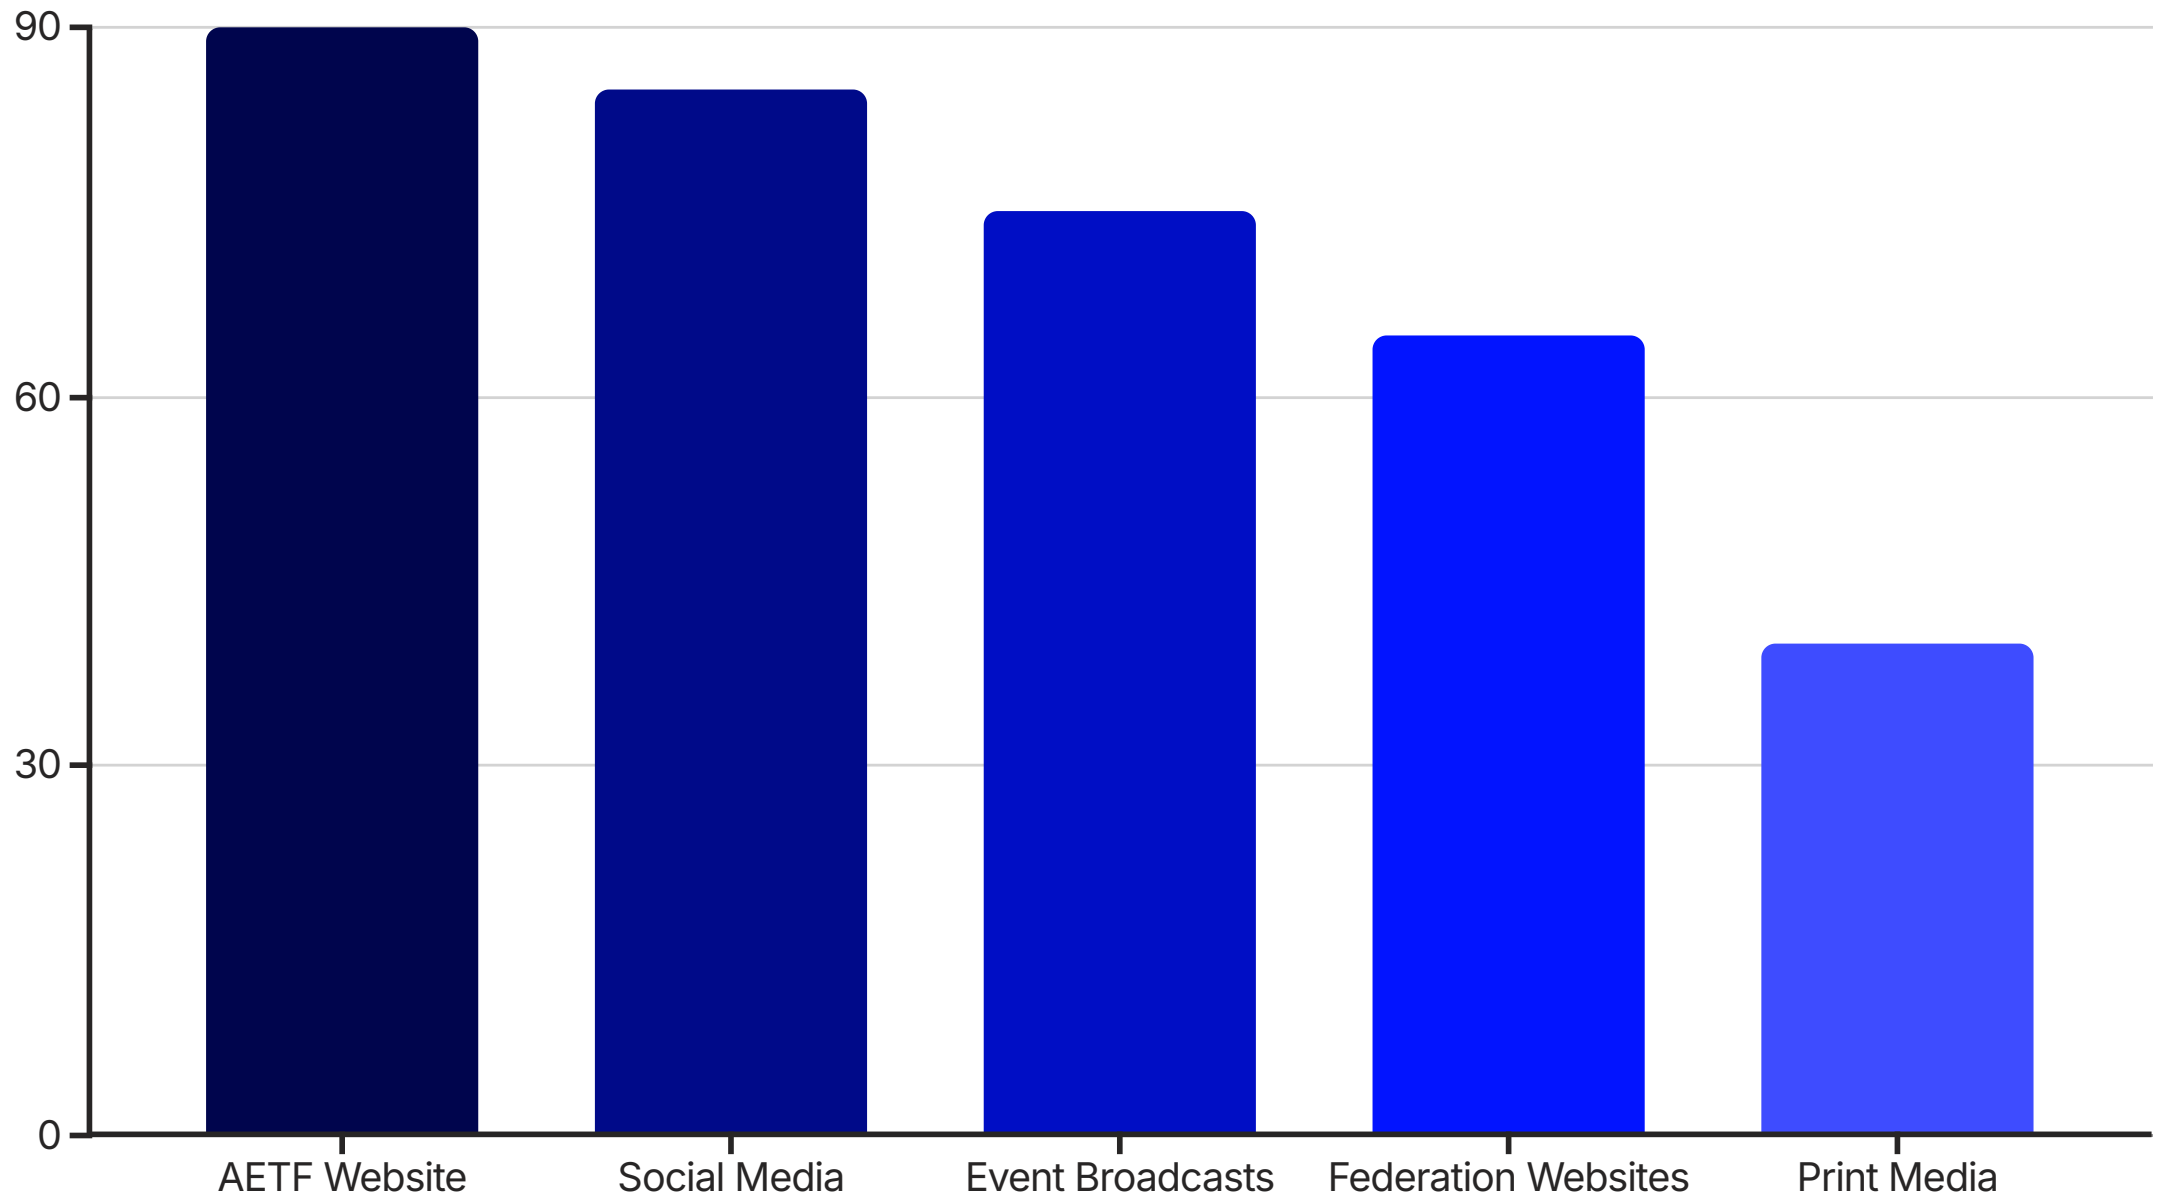

Technical Implementation

The AETF Ranking System will be implemented through the Sportdata platform, providing a seamless digital experience for competitors, officials, and event organizers. The system will feature real-time updates, comprehensive statistics, and user-friendly interfaces accessible via web and mobile applications.

All ranking events will utilize electronic scoring systems to ensure accuracy and transparency in point allocation and results management.

Ranking Visibility

The AETF Ranking System will be prominently featured across multiple platforms to maximize visibility for competitors and umpires. The AETF website will serve as the primary hub for ranking information, with dedicated sections for competitor and umpire rankings.

Social media channels will regularly highlight top-ranked individuals and upcoming ranking events, while event broadcasts will incorporate ranking information into their coverage.
