WELCOME LETTER

We have dreamed of this day for years.

Today, Paraguay opens its doors to Taekwon-Do from around the world, and Asunción is getting ready to welcome the best delegations on the planet with what we do best: Guaraní warmth, passion and teamwork.

This event is much more than a competition: it is a chance to show the world how our sport is growing and to share an unforgettable week, on and off the tatami.

Welcome home. Welcome to Asunción.

THE CAPITAL YOU'LL FALL IN LOVE WITH

History, river and unstoppable energy.

- Founded in 1537 on the banks of the Paraguay River, Asunción is the “Mother of Cities” of South America: the oldest capital in the region.
- Today, it is a vibrant city of nearly 3.6 million people in its metropolitan area — waterfront, historic center, Guaraní cuisine and identity, shopping and entertainment, all within easy reach.
- The Palacio de López, seat of government, is an imposing pink neoclassical building, especially striking when illuminated at night along the river.
- The Asunción Costanera offers a wide pedestrian and vehicle promenade along the bay — perfect for watching the sunset.
